

FIXED MINDSET VS. GROWTH MINDSET

in the Art Room

Gives up easily when things get tough.

Persistent when faced with obstacles.

Believes talent is fixed.

Believes talent can improve.

Ignores new and different challenges.

Welcomes new and different challenges.

Discouraged by the success of others.

Motivated by the success of others.

Believes artmaking skills cannot improve.

Accepts that artmaking with take practice and effort.

Discredits others' feedback.

Learns from others' feedback.

Frustrated by trying new techniques, methods, and mediums.

Encouraged by trying new techniques, methods, and mediums.

Believes failure is inevitable and insignificant.

Gains knowledge and experience from failed attempts.